Stunning townhouse in Alaro with project

Welcome to this stunning townhouse in the heart of the historic village of Alaró, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside. The property has a large garden offering a tranquil space in a lively mountain village. The town villa is being sold with an approved renovation project that aims to extend and remodel it into a luxurious, modern family home while retaining its historic features. The project involves extending the living areas and creating large bedrooms and living areas with the help of one of Palma's leading architects. The property has 4 meter high ceilings on the ground and ground floor and many original features that add to its charm and character. The renovation will extend the property to an internal living area of 600 m² with 7 bedrooms. The main building will have 5 bedrooms each with its own bathroom and 2 bedrooms in the adjoining guest house (in a duplex flat) with its own entrance. The main building will also have 2 living rooms, an office and a dining room. A gym, a sauna and a wine cellar. A large pool, two pergolas, an outdoor terrace and an outdoor BBQ kitchen area. The design of the renovation project utilises local materials and sensitively preserves the original character of this historic building whilst transforming it into a unique, luxurious, modern family home. The house is in excellent structural condition. This property can be purchased with permission or completely renovated.
